New Years Day

Audrye Sessions

I sit all dully in a beautiful yellow haze
Setting my mind on a perpetual holiday
TV set shows me everything that I need
Guess I'm not gonna get out of bed anytime this week
But I'll be home to New Years Day
Right now I am far away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
But I'll be home to New Years Day
Throw another year away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
The kids outside on the street play the stupid games
Seems they don't even notice that the sky's turning green again
Spots behind my eyes full of crooked lines
But you can yell all day, then I won't listen to a word you say
But I'll be home to New Years Day
Right now I am far away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)

But I'll be home to New Years Day
Throw another year away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
But I'll be home to New Years Day
Right now I am far away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
I sit all dully in a beautiful yellow haze
Sit and stare at the wall as my hair turns gray
Seems to come throw another year away
But I'll be home in time for New Years Day
I'll be home to New Years Day
Right now I am far away
But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
And I'll be home to New Years Day
Throw another year away

But I'll be home to New Years Day
(New Years Day)
