Serious

J Prince

The signs of the times are here
And who can't hear,
Them ah go feel it, Them ah go feel it[CHORUS]
You got to be serious
Jesus is coming serious
Its not enough just to be conscious
You got to be serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough to be consciousRun away from the wicked and jealousy, pride and lust
Stay away from pornography not even ah touch
If Satan in a car, me ride in di bus
If him dey pon di tar, mi drive through di bush
I got to be separate, the difference got to make
Cause many men die for the gospel, because them want it
Di whole ah it, not a convenient piece or quarter it
Righteous people a holy nation,
Chosen generation
Time for we live like we set apart, children of the light
Holy and righteous Jesus mi put first[CHORUS]
Serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough just to be conscious
You got to be serious
Jesus is coming serious
Its not enough just to be consciousSo much of song them bring to me
Crazy hooks in symphony
But if you're not saying God then you're not saying anything
So much of books them bring to me
Linguistics and philosophy
But if you're not saying good then you're not saying anything[BRIDGE]
My inspiration comes from God no other
I'm the clay and he is the potter
I'm the sheep is the Shepherd of di pasture
Imagine di world without water
If the branches don't bear fruit
You gonna throw it away[CHORUS]
Serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough just to be conscious

You got to be serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough just to be consciousCan't you see the wars, don't you hear the rumor
Diseases and pestilence taking over like a tumor
The children of the world delight in their evil
Seems there's no difference with the world and God's people
But I know, every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess King Jesus ah di best ah di rest
So clean up your heart my friend and clean it again and again
And work out your salvation, in ah fear and trembling[CHORUS]
Serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough just to be conscious
Serious
Jesus is coming serious,
Its not enough just to be conscious
