Devils

Dick Prall

Devils
Make the happiest couples
No oneâ€™s innocent
Nobobyâ€™s cleanâ€¦ except me
Swallow
Every siren you follow
â€˜Til the moon
Settles down in the sea

Believe you from me
Itâ€™s already out there
Thereâ€™s somebody waiting to be
Just your freak
To set you apart from why
Your happy is not your high
To tell you the things
From the songs that you sing
When youâ€™re all alone
And free free free

Are you failing
In your quest to be settled in
Is there something
That youâ€™d rather do
Itchy
Itâ€™s a matter to which degree
You can sit still
Until the need to run runs out of you

Believe me
Itâ€™s already out there
Thereâ€™s somebody waiting to see
What you need
To take you apart from why
Your happy is not your high
And say all the things
From those songs that you sing
When youâ€™re all alone

And free free free

To set you apart from why
Your happy is not your high
And say all the things
From the songs that you sing
When youâ€™re all alone
And free free free
