Jerk

Auryn

(Verse 1)
Man I couldve been cold, but I was days away.
I shouldve been bold and not bought into every word youd say.
I couldve been hard and fought like all the rest.
I shouldve been smart and not reached to comfort you with my best.
But II got sucked in.(Chorus)
If Im a jerk, Ive been this way since birth.
And its you that makes you hurt.
Ill make you realize, you realize,
Im a jerk and Ive been this way since birth.
And its you that makes you hurt.
Ill make you realize, you realize that.(Verse 2)
So I couldve been wrong to offer you my help.
I shouldve been strong and left you there to handle things yourself.
I couldve been gone by a clever some disguise.
Ill be the one you who holds you here and makes you realize.
Its youyou suck me in.(Chorus Twice)
If Im a jerk, Ive been this way since birth.
And its you that makes you hurt.
Ill make you realize, you realize,
Im a jerk and Ive been this way since birth.
And its you that makes you hurt.
Ill make you realize, you realize that.
