The Gank

Nelly

C'mon,
Shit, Lord have mercy
I never felt this way before
And she's all that I needed more
Her hips and waist, good Lord I mean
It often wakes me right out my dreams
If I knew then what I knew now
She still might be around because
I, I can't go on, oh no
I tell you what am I gonna do now
Without her my life just won't, it won't be the same
What am I gonna do now? Hey without
Shit, Lord have mercy
I never thought that I would be
So caught up that I wouldn't see
Just who would go to war for me
And take out two or three so easily
I'd give up everything to see I found you, baby girl
'Cause it don't mean shit without you 'cause
I, I can't go on, oh no
I tell you no lie, what am I gonna do now?
Without her my life just won't, it won't be the same
What am I gonna do now? Hey without
Shit, Lord have mercy

I gave her everything she ever needed
That's why it shocked me when she said she was leavin'
I wanted to find out what was goin' on
'Cause I'm thinkin' to myself man somethin's wrong
And then smokin' one day it hit me kinda fast
That I need to go check my stash 'cause I
Check my stash, I mean for real
I mean it turned out man, she took everything man
My cash, my cop money, my connects
She took everything man, what? Nothin' I could do man
I can't go on man, I can't go on dirty
She got everything, she hit me man, I got got Just finish this
Alright

'Cause I, I can't go on, oh no
I tell you no lie, what am I gon' do now?
Without her my life just won't, it won't be the same
What am I gonna do now?
'Cause I, I can't go on, oh no
I tell you no lie, what am I gon' do now
Without her my life just won't, it won't be the same
What am I gon' do now? Hey without
Lord have mercy
Lord have mercy
