

The hit

Wallrus

Look at this nigga, stuntin' in front of Justin's, actin' silly
If it wasn't cops all over, I'd smack him with this milli
 You hoe, niggaz, move a brick and think they rich
 Get a few guns and a click and wanna take over shit
 Ain't that the same kid that shot Reg in the head?
 Turned him into a carrot, he might as well have been dead
 Just came home from doin' ten up in the Feds
 Be extortin' kingpins for they horse and they bread
Had the whole Brooklyn under pressure, I'm surprised he ain't test ya
 Mad niggaz know better
 I ain't comin' up offa, no cheddar, no bricks, no nothin'
 I'll kill that motherfucker, fuck him, yeah, I'll pay him somethin'
 Pay his ass a visit, blow his brains on the sidewalk
 Let him collect his thoughts
 I'm the strongest force in New York
 'Til I'm a corpse and even then, I'll be buried with bricks
 And money filled vaults, seventeen shots and two weeks later
 I'm in the spot, takin' it light
 Watchin' the Tyson fight, it's packed, uh, with killers and rats
 Dope dealers, money hungry bitches, malicious
 Cars pilin' up the block for blocks, nigga, Bentleys and 6's
 This the place to be, where all the gangsters meet
 As I pick up my drink, I see my man Fat Pete
But before I could walk over, two niggaz tapped him on the shoulder
 And unloaded in his face, bullets flyin' all over the place
 Mirrors shatterin', people scatterin', his bodyguards shot back
 Missed one but hit the other, in the abdomen, they both fled
 But who the fuck would do somethin' so brazen and reckless?
 Had to be some niggaz tryin' to send a message
 Next day I got a call from uptown to Come have a meetin' with The Council
 'Bout the shit that's been goin' down
Word is, same kid that killed Fat Pete, shot Reg in the head
 Bottom line, he's out of control, he got to be dead
 He's startin' to be a real problem
 Extortin' niggaz, Brooklyn through Harlem
But he fucked around and crossed the margin, touched one of ours
 He got to go, he from your hood, handle it Poe
 Say no mo', I'm out the do'

Went back to the spot to grab the guns
Semi auto check, AK 40 check, shotgun check, revolver, that's perfect
Called Tiz and told him meet me in an hour
Bring the caravan, you know the plan
Ski masks and stockings, seen him down the ave, boppin'
Him and a friend, just hopped in a Benz
Twenty inches on the rims, let's follow 'em slow, keep 'em in sight
Wait 'til he stop at a red light, then roll the window down
And kiss them bitches goodnight, they musta saw somethin'
'Cause the Benz busted you and came at us firin' shots
I threw the revolver, grabbed the tec and left the driver's side wet
The Benz ran in a store window and got wrecked
I hopped out the van, ran up to the scene, still holdin' the tec
One nigga's body was split in half, the other nigga still movin'
Heard sirens comin' closer, as I'm 'bout to shoot him
But fuck it, I opened his mouth and let the tec spray
And told him tell Satan, I'm on my way, die bitch
