Stone

Bob Hate

Stone

when she said she would be mine I felt like I was king
I held her close to my chest and I promised her anything she knew something about being along the girl is a stone

I knew that she was lying
I held her close to my chest but I could feel that she was dying things just happen, she said and you donâ€™t wonder why you were always the best but now we say goodbye

she knew something about being along
the girl is a stone

I keep running
I keep driving just canâ€™t let the girl out of my mind
