Living In a Dreamworld

CB Milton

In my escapade to freedom
I fly along among the stars
I look down on the planet
4 billion heartbeats, beating on the pulse of life
Searching for love and happiness
Everyone in a hurry to fulfill their need for pleasure
Everyone is trying to escape from reality
Living in a dreamworldIn my escapade to freedom
I turn my eyes toward the sun
Say goodbye to the shadows
See the world as it's turning from daylight into darkness
Everywhere you go you see love turn into madnessBut it's got to be
Baby you and me
And it's everything i live for
But it's got to be
Baby you and me
Or is everything we try for living in a dreamworld
Living in a dreamworldDid they talk to you of freedom
Fill your head with hopes and plans
Just look down at the planet
Everyone in a hurry to fulfill their need for pleasure
Every is trying to escape from the cold realityOh
Living in a dreamworld
It's gotta be you and meEverything, everything, everything I live for Everything, everything, everything I live for
