

True Companion

Russ Freeman & The Rippingtons

Baby I've been searching like everybody else
Can't say nothing different about myself
Sometimes I'm an angel and sometimes I'm cruel
When it comes to love, I'm just another fool
 Yes, I'll climb a mountain
 I'm gonna swim the sea
 There ain't no act of God, girl
 Could keep you safe from me
 My arms are reaching out
 Out across this canyon
I'm asking you to be my true companion
 True companion, true companion
So, don't you dare and try to walk away
I've got my heart set on our wedding day
I've got this vision of you girl in white
Made my decision that it's you alright
 When I take your hand
 I'll watch my heart set sail
 I'll take my trembling fingers

 And I'll lift up your veil
Then I'll take you home and with wild abandon Make love to you just like a true companion
 You are my true companion
I got a true companion, oh, true companion
When the years have done irreparable harm
 I can see us walking slowly arm in arm
 Just like that couple on the corner do
 Girl, I will always be in love with you
 When I look in your eyes
 I'll still see that spark
 Until the shadows fall
 Until the room grows dark
 Then when I leave this Earth
 I'll be with the angels standin'
I'll be out there waitin' for my true companion
 Just for my true companion
 True companion, true companion
