

Evoke

After Forever

So wild, so beautiful and pure
All elements divine
The essence of all life
So vast, extensive and remote
Unbridled and erratic
Savage but gloriousIt bursts, its energy is stirring
It calls, its drawing power
Will enchant us with its might
Its massive spirits bright
Let it flowIts endless beauty will evoke
A timeless sequence we all share
We cannot break through nor control
But to feel its true soul
Dare to concede and to connectEmerging waves and brightened skies
The sun that burns in your eyes
The wind that blows and poundsIt shines, its energy is whirling
It fights, will not be interfered with people
Who can't feel, it is all nature's flow
Let it flowIt's endless beauty will evoke
A timeless sequence we all share
We cannot break through nor control
We should cherish itOh, energy
Oh, evoke meLet it flow
Its endless beauty will evoke
A timeless sequence we all share
We cannot break through nor control
It is not at our command, no
