

It Feels So Good to Be Loved So Bad

Manhattans

(Voice Over)Ohh baby the more I love you
The more I want to love you
Cause loving you is all that is on my mind
I wish I can be with you
Forever and everOhh baby, well loving you is all thats on my mind (yes it is)
I want you, I want you, I want you
I want to have you one more time
You've got it easy way of loving and It's the best that I ever had (well, well)
And it feels, it feels so good to be loved so bad ohh baby yeah needing you is More is all I can take (yes it is)
C'mon and hold me, touch me, feel me
Do it to me once againYou feel me with desire and it's all
Going to drive me mad
It feels, it feels so good to be loved so badDo you feel it are you ready (are you ready)
Hold on steady, ohh hold on steady
Here we go, here we go again, now
Move a little bit closer
C'mon and follow me to estacyOh girl can't believe the way we flow
I want to love you, love you
I don't ever want to let you go
Now you've got me where you want me
And it makes me feel glad
'Cuz it feels, it feels so good to be loved so bad
Loving you is all that's on my mind
I want to have you just one more chance
