Curse Of Me

Wednesday 13

Take your breath
I rob you of your life
Oh how I love to see you cry
I'm your nightmare in shinning armor
Bringing horror
Your screams can't penetrate my insecurities
My heart stopped beating
When you first said that you loved me
And now I hold you close to me
But I still don't feel a thing
You're so cold and blue
And now I must forget you
Some things are worth dying for
And baby that ain't me
I'm sorry that you couldn't escape
This curse of me
Tonight I hold you one more time
With the stench of formaldehyde

You're my darkest secret
And in my crawl space is where I'll keep it
Your hopes and dreams
Won't ever see the light of day
I took your beauty, your purity
And locked it all away
And now I hold you close to me
But I still don't feel a thing
You're so cold and blue
And now I must forget you
Some things are worth dying for
And baby that ain't me
I'm sorry that you couldn't escape
This curse of me
This curse of me
This curse
This curse of me
