

Iâ€™m So Humble (feat. Adam Levine)

The Lonely Island

[Intro: Andy Samberg]

Watch out, watch out

It's Conner! [Chorus 1: Adam Levine & Andy Samberg]

I've got it all and I'm gettin' more

But I never fall, beat 'em all

Cause you know I'm so humble

I'm so humble, I'm so humble

I'm a superstar, I kick down the door

Got the money and the girls

And I'm also so humble

I'm so humble

I'm so humble, I'm so humble [Verse 1: Andy Samberg]

Bar none, I am the most humble-est

Number one at the top of the humble list

My apple crumble is by far the most crumble-est

But I act like it tastes bad outta humbleness

The thing about me that's so impressive

Is how infrequently I mention all of my successes

I poo-poo it when girls say that I should model

My belly's full from all the pride I swallow

I'm the most courteous-bittable, hospitable

Reverential, normal-ary Arnold Schwarzen-organary

I hate compliments, put 'em in the mortuary

I'm so ordinary that it's truly quite extraordinary [Break: Adam Levine]

It's not a competition, but I'm winnin'

You won't hear me admit it

Because I'm so timid and submissive

I treat fat people like they were thin

Talk simple for the dumbos

I'm so humble [Verse 2: Andy Samberg]

I'm not your normal definition of a rock star

I don't complain when my private jet is subpar

Ya mom's old, but I'll ask if she's your sister

People say I'm charming, bu-but I beg to differ

I feel more humble than Dikembe Mutombo

After a stumble left him covered in a big pot o' gumbo

I guess in a way, bein' gracious is my weakness

People say I'm so unpretentious for a genius [Chorus 2: Adam Levine & Andy Samberg]

I've got it all and I'm gettin' more

But I never fall, beat 'em all
Cause you know I'm so humble
I say that with no ego
I'm so humble
It's just good manners
They say I'm a ten, but I'm an eight at best
"Plus two," says you
Not me, cause I'm so humble
Mama raised me right
I'm so humble, I'm so humble[Outro]
Watch out, watch out
