Bloodties

Jungle Rot

Feed on us to gain our powers
Deals are forged underneath tables
While dead peasants are asleep
Enemies in the public eye
Discuss plans to herd their sheep
Do one thing then say another
Labels their legacy
They want us to hate each other
Then covet our currency

The world elite
Want us to suffer
Immersed in fear
Ensures Project Consumer
The world elite
Want us to suffer
Immersed in fear
Ensures Project Consumer

The masses eat religion
Brought forth by fools with visions
Under some influences
Prophets on ancient drugs

Lies, across the nations
Lies, subliminal mind control
Lies, future plagued by autism
Lies: Population control
War: On our intelligence, prescribed
War, on our intelligence, deprived
War, on our intelligence

Perverts brainwash
Precious technology guarantees our relentless dependency
Keeping us
Distracted with their racism
Pointless factions
Drunk actors and drugged athletes
They're our saviours

Artificial reality glamorized-materialistic
We're walking advertisements ripe for selling
Selling
Everything's propaganda
Everything's propaganda
Everything's propaganda
