

Gone Under (feat. Shayna Steele)

Snarky Puppy

My heart bleeds, I am broken
And I got nowhere to go
There's this thing holding me down
And I'm at an all-time lowI can't sleep, but I keep my eyes closed
Can't even think of moving ahead
I can't breathe, this battle I'm loosing
This weary body been there for daysI'm going under, under the water
I'm drowning my sorrows, and burdens awayI feel this house, every corner
Nothing left but bad memories
Can't sit up, up in here no more
Pretending that I'm already freeI think twice, try'na stop me
I'll bring you down like gravity pulls Can't take back what's been done to me
Last time I made you look like a foolI'm going under, under the water
I'm drowning my sorrows, and burdens away
I'm going under, under the water
I'm drowning my sorrows, and burdens awayOhohoh, no more, no more, no more, no worry no more ://I need faith, I need you my Lord
So tired I don't know what to do
I need faith, I need you Lord
So tired I don't know what to doI even think I need you Lord
So tired I don't know what to do
I need faith, I need you Lord
So tiredDon't want to go under, under the water
I'm drowning my sorrows, and burdens away
Don't want to go under, under the water
Cleansing my sorrows, and burdens awayEyeyey, no more, no more, no more, no worry no more ://I'm going under, under the water
I'm drowning my sorrows, and burdens away
Don't want to go under, yea!
