Riverdance

The Sam Willows

I want to see all your love for me
It's ridiculous to fall for me
And I

So let it go to the moon and tide
And follow me to the riverside
And I, I'm gone

One for the running and one for the lives
A livid heart beating and soaking the fire
And I, I'm ready to go

I want to know how your silence flows
Speak of fiction like it's tale of chosen
Lives

So let it go to the moon and tide
And follow me to the riverside
And I, I'm gone'

One for the running and one for the lives
A livid heart beating and soaking the fire
Yeah, I'm ready to go
Woah
One for the running and one for the lives
The river keeps calling us all through the night
And yeah, I'm ready to go
