

The Webs We Weave

Escape the Fate

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

So grab this statement
And read between the lines I'm walking on an edge That's how I stay alive
I need a fix now
The pills I have to take It helps me live a lie and blinds all my mistakes before I die I will have seen it all the mountains I have climbed help me enjoy the fall Oh the webs you weave We are caught in the fame
the passion's dead
the life you've lead has drown in your shame oh the webs I weave I am caught in this game my passions dead
the life I've lead has drowned me in vain so paint my portrait the colours of my life and the untold stories are painted in black and white i can hear the footsteps that follow to my pulse this paranoia has haunted me like a ghost before I die I will have seen it all
help me enjoy the fall Oh the webs you weave
the life you've lead
has drown in your shame Oh the webs I weave

the life I've lead
has drowned me in vain I will have seen it all (seen it all) [x2] I'm killing time

Let me go
(before I die)
(I will have seen it all)
it reads their minds brings them close (before I die)
(I will have seen it all) Oh the webs you weave
has drowned me in vain
