

Cryin' In the Rain (Remastered)

Ambrosia

Lookin' for affection
Look in my direction
Honey, don't you hesitate
You say you're such a young girl
Livin' in a rough world
Let me try and ease your pain
But someone's cryin' in the rain
Someone's cryin' out loud
Someone's callin' your name
Someone's callin' it now
It's madness
Baby, look into the madness
Girl, don't let your sadness
Keep your love away right now
How I'd like to hold you
Things I'd like to show you
Can I get to you somehow?
But someone's cryin' in the rain
Someone's cryin' out loud
Someone's callin' your name
Someone's callin' it now
It's madness
Baby, the rain it keeps on fallin'
Who in the world will stop the rain?
Baby, the rain - it keeps on fallin'
Who in the world will stop the rain?
Lookin' for affection
Look in my direction
Honey, don't you hesitate
(Girl) You say you're such a young girl
Livin' in a rough world
Let me try and ease your pain
Someone's cryin' in the rain (Cryin' in the rain)
Someone's cryin' out loud
Someone's callin' your name (Callin' your name)
Someone's callin' it now
It's madness
