

Come Back to Sorrento

Dean Martin

Sunlight dances on the sea
Tender thoughts occur to me
I have often seen your eyes
In the nighttime when I dream When I pass a garden fair
And the scent is in the air
In my mind a dream awakes
And my heart begins to break But you said goodbye to me
Now all I can do is grieve
Can it be that you forgot?
Darling forget me not! Please don't say farewell
And leave this heart that's broken
Come back to Sorrento
So I can mend
