This Fight

Sarah Geronimo

Did I cause you any problems
Did I open up a scar
Did I push too much for love
Or was it just me trying too hardDid I think of this the wrong way
Or was it written in the stars
Was I wrong for aiming high
And aiming farHmm... hmmm...Is it too much for some answers
Do I ask too much for me
Is it anger holding you back
From that something we could beI guess my best guess is the way the things will go
By the look of things, I guess I'll never know'Cause I gave it all I had
Didn't budge when things went bad
I feel lost and alone
Can't decide if this feeling feels right
How do I win this fightI've never been a fan of conflict
But you're like gasoline in flame
And by the end of it
I'm down and broken
And you can't say the sameI didn't break off any promise
I didn't cheat or anything
You should have thought about me
Never being the same'Cause I gave it all I had
Didn't budge when things went bad
I feel lost and alone
Can't decide if this feeling feels right
How do I win this fightAnd I won't forget the moment
When I realized it's hopeless
Can you find it in you
To take a step back
And feel a little shame'Cause I came to you in one piece
With my heart in hand
And so pleased
Didn't figure you would Take me in and leave'Cause I gave it all I had
Didn't budge when things went bad
I feel lost and alone
And I feel overthrown
Can't decide if this feelings feels right
How do I win this fightOoh... how do I win this fightI feel lost and alone

And I feel overthrown
Can't decide if this feelings feels right
How do I win this fight
