

I Can't Fight this Feeling

Johnny Philko

Once upon a time
When the world was all mine
Mom and Dad were near
Calming every little fear
Monsters lived at night
Faces hidden in the light
I can't fight this feeling
It sends my senses reeling
When I look in those eyes
I realize the truth behind those lies
See the days go by
Leave my youth with a sigh
Goin' where I'm led
Fairy tales running through my head
They've been all but lost
At such a cost
I can't fight this feeling
It sends my senses reeling
When I look in those eyes
I realize the truth behind those lies
