

Out of My Mind

Rory Gallagher

Well, you took me out of my mind, baby
You took me out of my head
My friends have gone to look for me
I ain't been seen yetNo I ain't disappeared
I'm only over hereWell, you found me out of my skull baby
Staring at the stars
You will appear now just in time
To what I was looking forI had no place to run
Did not have anyoneWell, I wonder why the day is so bright
What can the reason be
You light up the darkest night
Like a pearl out of the seaHope it can always be
But I must wait and seeGive me some of your love baby
That is all I need
Tell me what it's all about
Tell me what you seeWhere have you been so long
My tears have dried and gone
Where have you been so long
All my blues have goneWell, you took me out of my mind baby
You took me out of my head
My friends have gone to look for me
I ain't been seen yetNo I ain't disappeared
I'm only over here
No I ain't disappeared
I'm only over here
