

Maybe

Collective Soul

The sky now divides
To bring you back into the fold
Welcome home
Still my need to recognize
Any comfort you may show
Only grows
And guess, I'll learn to accommodate
While my heart just sits and waits Maybe God, you found
Maybe is all that you can offer now
Offer now Where am I to take refuge
When the storms of pain release?
Shelter me
This blessedness of life
Sometimes brings me to my knees
I call on thee
I have not the words to write
A farewell to you tonight Maybe God, you found
Maybe is all that you can offer now
Offer now Well, I know hearts are weeping
While your voice is now singing
On high
Angel on high I have not the words to write
A farewell to you tonight Maybe God, you found
Maybe is all that you can offer now
Offer now Maybe God, you found
Maybe is all that you can offer now
Offer now
