We Know Better

Kristen Anderson-Lopez

Our thrones
Behind stone
We'll make it our home
Dust in the will of steppers
Dressed as lepers
Why can't we ever be the same
As what the world believes
But we know better
We know better
Wanna touch the world just let her

Steal air
Without care
Because we're still bare
And to remove our shadows
Poison arrows
And all I do is sit and fall in love
With only you
With only you
Could make me fall in love
And love me love like I love you
Love like you never did before
