

Substitute

Peggy Sue

(Verse)

The light won't last, the season pass
And trees, they loose their leaves
Like i shed a dress for you
And their fading blue

Now I'm killing time with someone new
It rains each moment of you(Chorus)

Cause you won't let me go where you go
So I head where you don't want me to
If you won't see me off with a smile

The harsh burns of sweetest substitute(Verse)

The days grow vain, the lines all fade
A turning page, the edges haze
Like burning photograph
Like burning photograph

A letter, so many times redrafted

I don't remember where I even started(Chorus)

Cause you won't let me go where you go
So I head where you wont want me to
If you won't see me off with a smile

Oh harsh burns or sweetest substitute

Cause I could love you, I could love you, i could love you yeah i could love you if i wanted to (i could love you, i could love you)

you said i was cool, always was cool, always was cool.

I could be, you always fell in love too
