Take A Look At Me Now

Greyson Chance

So long to electric fences
Not much left for me to run from now
Guess I'll turn myself around
I'm putting down my defenses
These wings are gonna take me off the ground
It's freedom sweet as sound
And I'll admit that I was wrong
It's freedoms beautiful sound
Finally taking my fist downWould you stop and take a look at me now?
Could you stop and take a look at me now?
When your standing right in front of me
Your looking at the positive that was negative
Would you stop and take a look at me now?Don't know what you get tomorrow
Not sure where I want to go tonight
Isn't that what life's about?
So long for the fears and worries
Let's go and you won't be sorry
I'll be the one that gets you out
Chase the demons out tonight
You can see how fast they run
When you turn the lights will shineWould you stop and take a look at me now?
Could you stop and take a look at me now?
When your standing right in front of me
Your looking at the positive that was negative
Would you stop and take a look at me now?And it gets more beautiful it gets more beautiful
As the sun turns into rain
And the hurt turns into shame
And it gets more wonderful it gets more wonderful
Can you get this through your brain
That you can not lose again?Would you stop and take a look at me now?
Could you stop and take a look at me now?
When your standing right in front of me
Your looking at the positive that was negative
Would you stop and take a look at me now?
