

Unavoidable Scenario

Alise Joste

a black gloomy wave of despair pushing me down the house gets flooded and there's no chance I'm ever getting out and my lungs get filled with water and I'm drowning in my sorrow and your hands reaching out towards me I'm hoping they would touch me but I'm still a fool desperately waiting for something that would never ever happen so let me stay here, let me rot let me stay here, let me get eaten up
