

Alarm Clock Bones (feat. Calum Stewart)

Crows Feet

Looking back through the rose tinted glass.

And we stopped breathing, stopped breathing.
Holding our breaths over hundreds of steps, only you tripped.
Tables and chairs pulled from under ourselves, tell tail signs.

I just came to say, how would you of done it differently.
Seventeen
rest in alarm clock bones
(ohh's)

We cover our ears caught up in fears, no we're talking, we're talking.
Stumbling starts like the worse in the class, seven out of ten

(Chorus)

I just came to say, how would you of done it differently
Seventeen
Rest in a alarm clock bones
You're asleep in the back of the home
Rest in alarm clock bones
(ohh's)
