

All Riot Now

Handsome Beasts

There's a human cry around the street
Sound of voices been raised in heat
I read the papers, I see the sign
You're rebelling and it's about time

You've had enough, can't take more
Can't get no lower than on the floor
Working hard from dawn to dusk
You push and push until it busts

Don't you know there's gonna be
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

Telling you so you will see,
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

You take away their self respect
Tell me honey, what did you expect?
Your telling them this, you tell them that
You get them mad enough they'll attack

Don't you know there's gonna be
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

Telling you so you will see,
There's gonna be a riot

Don't you know there's gonna be
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

Telling you so you will see,
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

There's a human cry around the street
The sound of voices been raised in heat

I read the papers, I see the sign
That you're rebelling and it's about time

You've had enough, can't take more
Can't get no lower than on the floor
Working hard from dawn to dusk
You push and push until it busts

Don't you know there's gonna be
There's gonna be a riot
Riot

Telling you so you will see,
There's gonna be a riot
Riot
