I Would Have Left You

Reef

Won't you give pictures of you?
We'll go out, lounge by the pool,
After the sun has baked us through,
We'll retreat to the bedroom.I would have left you babe,
I would have left you babe,
I would have left you babe, if I only could.
I would have left you baby,
I would have left you baby,
I would have left you babe, if I only could.When we are where we should be,
There'll be no questions in me,
After all was said before,
You came and grabbed some more.
I would have left you.I would have left you babe,
I would have left you babe,
I would have left you babe, if I only could.
I would have left you baby,
I would have left you baby,
I would have left you babe, if I only could.I would have left you babe, if I only could.I would-a left you babe,
I would-a left you babe,
I would-a left you babe, if I only could.
I would-a left you baby,
I would-a left you baby,
I would-a left you babe, if I only could.I would-a left you sweet-girl,
I would-a left you honey-pie,
I would-a left you sugar, if I only could.
