Blue Moon

Moby

Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
Oh my blue moon
I see it soon
Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
Stop the hands before they seem
To take us up to where we've been
You see the leaves are falling down
On the stones we walked upon
Watch the city fall away
Then it's born to rise again
My blue moon will fall soon
Over loss and lover then
Oh my blue moon
I see it soon
Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
Come take these things away
Help me up, the skies are grey
Blue moons are falling now
Through all the years we wondered how
Oh my blue moon
I see it soon
Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone

Be alone
Be alone
Be alone
Be alone
Be alone
You'll never be alone
Oh my blue moon
I see it soon
Oh my blue home
I promise you'll never be alone
Oh my blue moon

I see it soon
Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
Never be alone
Never be alone
You'll never be alone
Be alone
You'll never be alone
Be alone
You'll never be alone
Oh my blue moon
I see it soon
Oh my blue home and I promise you
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
Never be alone
Be alone
