

Livin' It Up

Jimmy Buffett

He took one last look
Tossed that address book
His odyssey had begun
No time to see sights
Ran all the red lights
Burned all his bridges
Now it's love on the run[Chorus:]
Livin' it up
Is takin' all of his time
But he ain't givin' it up
It suits his temperament fineUp on the bandstand, plays for a few fans
Workin' for minimum wage
He sees her lookin', his brain is cookin'
She takes her seat of the foot of the stage[Chorus:]
Livin' it up
It's takin' all of his time
But he ain't givin' it up
It suits his temperament fineYeah he loves livin' it up
And takin' all of he's time
But he ain't givin' it up
It never crosses his mindDidn't say much, had a soft touch
Knew what felt good in her man
He was the same way, they split the next day
Sang all the way through the Yucatan[Chorus:]
Livin' it up
It's takin' all of our taim
But we ain't givin' it up
It never crosses our mind
No no no he's just livin' it up
And takin' all of his time
But he ain't givin' her up
She suits his temperament fine
Yeah she's just livin' it up
And takin' all of his time.

Songwriters

JIMMY BUFFETT, JOSH LEO, JOHN DAVID SOUTHERPublished by Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>