Proceed WIth Caution

The New Amsterdams

Sober you up
The odds in your favor
But I wouldn't wager anything
The clouds in your ears
Hold off your bets now
It's all going too wellSomething has got to give
I wouldn't wait for it
Baby I'll bet it's over due
You're lucky to be alive
So I wouldn't count
On anythingProceed with caution
From here on in
Proceed with caution
From here on inSober you up
The odds in your favor
I wouldn't wager anything
Clouds in your ears
Hold off your bets now
It's all going too wellSomething has got to give
I wouldn't wait for it
Baby you'll bet it's over due
You're lucky to be alive
And I wouldn't count
On anythingProceed with caution
From here on in
Proceed with caution
From here on inProceed with caution
From here on in
Proceed with caution
From here on in
Here on in, here on in
