Losing Sleep

Faktion

You say you have it all,
Here in your hands,
But I have everything I want,
And all that I need,
And I will not losing sleep
Over you,
I will always have my faith,
And someday I'll be free,
As the ocean, the stars,
As a cool summer breeze,
Oh but I will not
Waste a breath on the thought
Of losing you,
And I will not losing sleep
Over you,
I will always have my faith,

And someday I'll be saved,
And I will not losing sleep
Over you,
I can always have my dreams,
And someday I will be...
And someday I will be free,
To when is the waves crush in shore,
And crash over everything,
That showed me how to love,
Yeah it showed me how to breath,
And I will not losing sleep
Over you,
I'll always have my faith,
And someday I'll be saved,
And I will not losing sleep
Over you,
I'll always have my dreams,
And someday I'll be free.
