Say A Spell

The Birthday Party

Turn to my eyes so I may steal you Snatching such a vision burns a shape into me
Yet another hole, yet another hole
In this infested soul, in this infested soul.Could I keep you, keep you, keep you Keep you here in my pocket or I would bring you out and show around?
Not too much, not too much,
oh let it rain, oh let it rain, oh let it rain, wow! Let it rain!And maybe in time I could change And I would die to be you and I would kill to be good Until then, let's be eye to eye to eye to eye to eye
So say a spell, so say a spell!
