

The Descent (Confessions Of A Ghost)

Mark Salling

Have you ever felt like you're starting to slide

Down the side of a hill at the bottom

Where you will lose your mind?

So many contributing factors to hide

Never will find what's hidden inside

All your friends surround you

They're made out of air

They act like they do

But they don't really care

That just leaves the sickness

The music in me

Take my medicine and then you'll seeThe sun go down

And so are we

I'm screaming at you

But you don't hear me

Am I alone or am I crazy

The ghost will come around for you inevitablyHave you ever encountered a skeleton

Just a pile of bones I remove from my phone

So how've you been

Let me sing the song that reminds me again

Of the black in your soul

It's natural

I could take these problems

And blame them on you

I know what you did

And you know what I do

That just leaves a guitar, a pipe and a crow

You're my melody

And then you'll knowThe sun go down

And so are we

I'm screaming at you

But you don't hear me

Am I alone or am I crazy

The ghost will come around for you inevitablyWhat was it like to go through a life

And end up here

How does it feel to forget the world

And all your fears

I know it's hard to even imagine letting go

Maybe it's time you were finally crossing overThe sun go down

And so are we
I'm screaming at you
But you don't hear me
Am I alone or am I crazy
The ghost will come around for you inevitably
