Lost In You

Ann Beretta

Angry little hearts unite this time it's us against the world alright
Gotta have the answers, want a new anthem
Gonna take it all back tonight
So throw another brick and cast another stone
Another broken home I don't want to be alone
Holding out for the answers
Hold it up for ransom
Gonna shout it out loud,Gonna sing along tonightI don't want to be the one who brings the tears into your eyes
I only want to feel the light of heaven in your arm tonight
I'm lost in you [x2]
I don't want to be Anything other than
Lost in you again,All the broken smiles hold tight
This time it's us under the city lights
Waiting for a new day, or maybe just a new way to make it all worth our wild tonight
We miss another curtain call
And I'll catch you if you should fall
Holding for my anthem
Hold it up for ransom
Gonna shout out loud, Sing Along tonight[Chorus]One on one against the world [x8]
(against the world)[Chorus]
