

Anno Domini 1476

Marduk

But since Stefan failed his word and let Dracul's enemies come from every side Dracu has no choice but with his two hundred men into death ride

During the last battle the Turkish lines begin to scatter
And Vlad rode up on a hill to see the inferior blood splatter

But treasonous boars ambushed the lion to his blood spill Dracul fought bravely but the twentieth boar would be his last kill

When the Turks found his body they cut off his head
Which was stuck on a pole in Konstantinopel to show the Muslim world
That Kaziklu Bey was dead

The night of the lord impalers demise the worst storm man could remember struck the land

Kaziklu Bey was dead but not gone and by thunder his foe's now again could feel his hand

Songwriters

ERIK HAGSTEDT, MORGAN PATRIK NICLAS HAKANSSON Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>