The Kids Grown Up

Leo Sayer

southdown motor co2a busyou can see right insidemy parent's housesitting at the table and my dinner's upit's gonna be different whenthe kid's grown up gonna save some moneyand quit this joblight the wayclear the stagethe kid's grown up used to play in the undergroundhyde parknow I'm riding in a limousinethrough the underpassI'm sitting in an aeroplaneit's all such a rushpeople all around me makingso much fuss and I've got a little moneybut it ain't gonna burn me upif I'm in your towntonight I am -- watch outthe kid's grown up
