White Girl

USDA

Yeah, ay yeah, boi, ah yeah
Ay yeah, boi, ah yeah
Ay yeah, boi, ah yeah, ay yeah, boi

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, baby girl, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, home boy, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

Fresh white tee in my all-white Caddy
Yeah, she a girl but she call me daddy
Smokin' nothin' but the best, you can call this Cali
Half a brick on the seat, you can call that sally

A little paranoid, you can call me crazy
Last time they came though they spent about a buck 80
About a buck 80? Yeah, 180 thousand
Matta fact, nigga I'm runnin' through the change right now

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, baby girl, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, home boy, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

Who it be, the boy slick P
Clean muscle car runnin' wit da big feet
Blowin' my smoke, throwin' up da fo's
You can tell by da gear dat da kid get doe

62's jumpin' we call 'em Airgoers

Got 'em goin' fo da 12, yea we got 'em fo da low
And give two cell phones, a Nextel Metro
Keep my spot bumpin', open like da the 24

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, baby girl, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, home boy, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

B Ross Fien got his name from da raw
Not a stone in dis mafuckin' chain got a flaw
Man, yeah, I'm talkin' 'bout dat white thing
My niggas in da projects, yeah, they on da same thing

My lil' Senorita, call her Spanish Fly
I know a couple zones so I holla at my guy
So whatcha know about dem white blocks?
Yeah, I'm talkin' white squares
Move 'em by da twos so they goin' by da pairs

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, baby girl, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

You know we keep that white girl, Christina Aguilera
My jewelry too loud, home boy, I can't hear ya
I need about 50 of them bricks of the topic
They know we run the streets, man, them boys best stop it

You know we keep that white girl
You know we keep that white girl
You know we keep that white girl
