Amnesia

Pop Tracks

Somebody remind me what happened last night cos I can't remember a thing
I think they call this Amnesia
Feel like I've been in a sleeper
I think they call this Amnesia
SKEPTA
Last night was Sick, oh what a city.
I lost my phone though oh what a pity
When I woke up I found a note that said. Sorry I had to go Ily
I looked around this can't be real
Cos I don't recognize this
Then I saw the minibar and I was like Rarr
Somebody terrorised it.
Not even a bottle of water
Make it worse this room was hotter than a sauna ...
So I jumped up got ready.
Went downstairs to the hotel lobby.
Man are like swear down you're a mad man skeppy, I must have had one to many
Cos I can't remember anything after the two yager misters and a bottle of henny
Somebody remind me what happened last night cos I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means.
Feel like I've been in a sleeper.
I think they call this Amnesia
Who you trying to diss? Who did you fight with? Who did you kiss? Who did you dance with?
Who did you lits?
Awww man, you were a Myth!
I remember walking in Blinded by the lights
Look left, Look right
Saw 2 Men That I don't Like But I already lit up the room when I walked in
No need for fireworks tonight unless it's on the side of a bottle
And I'm only here for one night on the high, So I'm trying to find me a Model
We circled the party once,
Nothing Twice, Dead

Third time around I saw a girl I tuck into bed
Two minutes later, I'm at the bar.
Doing shots of yagar
Thats when I blacked out.
Anything after thats all a Myth
Like lorrie ager, Major

Somebody remind me what happened last night cos I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means.
Feel like I've been in a sleeper.
I think they call this Amnesia
Who you trying to diss? Who did you fight with? Who did you kiss? Who did you dance with?
Who did you lits?
Awww man, you were a Myth!
Had one drink, two drink, three drink, four, had one too many, now you're laying on the floor
Had one drink, two drink, three drink, four, had one too many, now you're laying on the floor
You lost your phone, you lost your friends
Here comes that classic line
I'm never drinking again
Thought you were casually drinking
But you were actually binging
Woke up somewhere you've never been too In your whole life
And now your thinking
Somebody remind me what happened last night cos I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means.
Feel like I've been in a sleeper.
I think they call this Amnesia
Somebody remind me what happened last night cos I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means.
Feel like I've been in a sleeper.
I think they call this Amnesia
