Nightmare

Razed in Black

I wake to a wasteland
I try to understand
hates me everyone
Satan's got a gun
left with everything I'm skinned by my own thoughts raped by every god
feeling so lonelyI feel so alone
I'm haunted every time I fucking close my eyes
eat at my rotten corpse
I feel the evil force
crumble and decay
I break down in dismay worst of this monstrositythis nightmare's draining me inside is that this is fucking reality Wake me up or I'll lose my mind this nightmare makes me wanna dieterrified to close my eyes
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?I wake in boiling sweat dream will I forget actions I do regret erase then smear with shit
I flee from nothing there possessed by if I care attempt to run away
manage to burn and pray
I fall in endless pit
and loving every bit further that I go smashed down on ten foot spikes escape this hell I know shoved deeper with her might I bleed cold in despair Wake me up or I'll lose my mindyet she doesn't fucking care this nightmare's draining me inside terrified to close my eyes
this nightmare makes me wanna dieWhen will I awake?

When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake
