

Death of Heaven

Infernal Majesty

Arrival of man conscience reality
Reality of life conscience of death
In the fangs of the panther the coming departure
Accepting death without fear
Gracefully rout the herding of the wear
Highly evolved writings of our lord
No ability to reason castigation of scripture
Accepting death without fear All the sick and injured
Fearing for your lives
Every ounce of strength
Death awaits
Every breath you take
Praying for diving
Intervention fleeting
Death awaits
Occupy tradition to dispel the truth
Savages demons preachers and ghosts
The fangs of the panthers inflicting their truth
All that is living will now die
Suicide repugnant by nature
Dissatisfaction with gods blue earth
All that is written begins with the sun
All that is living will now die All the sick and injured
Fearing for your lives
Every ounce of strength
Death awaits
Every breath you take
Praying for diving
Intervention fleeting
Death awaits
Death of heaven and all it's sin
Burning the cross satan lives Seething bleeding creating welking within
Not once but many with the power to lead astray
Forced in to the abyss
A perfect world for the godless
Forcing and corrupting ideals to make
Man a king of this world of pain Death of heaven and all it's sin
Burning the cross satan lives
