

Take Me Home

After Midnight Project

I'm walking in the shadows of my own tempted soul
Time is ticking by
While I'm chatting with this bottle of wine
I know that I'm not perfect
I'll admit that I'm a fool
Everytime I'm lost
I'm always finding my way back to you, the one
I need when I'm awake. Take me Home
I wanna go
And I'm sorry I can't love you
I'm sorry I can't make you see who I am. I can see what he was thinking
It's so easy if you try killing yourself with a silver dagger just to show how much her love
Is worth the pain
Then to hear her cry your name. Take me Home
I wanna go
And I'm sorry I can't love you
I'm sorry I can't make you see who I am. And I can't go on, I can't live like this
And we can't get it back, cuz it's all we waste it.
No I can't go on, I can't live like this... Take me Home
I wanna go
And I'm sorry I can't love you
I'm sorry I can't make you see who I am.
