Save and Ruin

Laconic

daddy come back to me i cannot live without daddy get away from me youre killing me when you died a part of me a part of me died with youyou you dont know what it feels like to be kicked in the face by your own father its alright you cant help your addictionstheres something thats inside of me that just makes me want to cry its something thats inside of me that just makes me want to diei love you i hate you
so fuck you
