Turn Your Face

Little Mix

Jesy:
In my memory, all the small things like daggers in my mind
In my memory, while my head bleeds the words i'll never find
That I always meant to say to you I Can't Jade:
Cause you Turned your face & now I can't feel you anymore
Turn your face so now I can't see you anymore
Walk away until you're not standing at my door
Turn your face, Walk away, & stay
Turn your face
Perrie:
In my memory, I was hurtin long before we met, oh
In my memory, they're still burnin, fingerprints you left
And I always meant to say to you I Can't
So just turn your face, until I can't see you anymore
Turn your face until I can't see you anymore
Walk away, until you're not standing at my door

Turn your face, walk away, & stay
Turn Your Face
Leigh-Anne:
Each time I take you back, you bring one thousand cracks
And I accept them like a fool ooooh
Perrie:
So now what's your excuse? What do we have to lose?
Since i'm already losing you.
Leigh-Anne:
So hard to face that i can't feel you anymore
Hard to face that i can't see you anymore
Perrie:
So walk away until you're not standing at my door
turn your face, walk away, & stay
Turn your face
Turn Your face & stay..
