Somebody up in here tonight needs a breakthrough

And you came here looking

Expecting for something to happen for you

Well, I came to let you know that if youGet your shout and your dance, make some noise

Move your feet and your hands

While you've got a chance you oughta get up

And give God all you canGet your shout and your dance, make some noise

Move your feet and your hands

While you've got a chance you oughta get up

And give God all you canDon't you know you've got the victory
