

All About You

40 Below Summer

Hey baby, I'm choking. (I'll help you breathe)
Hey baby, I'm smoking. (I'll set your mind at ease)
I feel you inside. (what do you want from me)
I want you to open wide. I'm needing to touch you. (do you fiend for me)
I'm needing to fuck you. (would you bleed for me)
And you wanted it all. (it all)
Before I FALL! Hey girl, better get up and move - watch that ass, cause I come to groove.
When I tasted you, then I wanted more - inside you I was reborn.
Lay down, and you injected - fill my veins up, I've been infected.
Your disease runs through me - fills me up every time you do me! It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about you. It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about you. All about you.
Hey woman, come thrill me. (all night long)
Hey woman, come fill me. (i'll make you strong)
I can feel the way you.. (the way I what) You touched me with betrayal. (and I tear you up)
I loved you, you moved me. (i'm your little girl)
Your very touch consumes me. (step into my world)
And then you'd RAPE ME - and then you'd DISGRACE ME! Open up and heed my words - listen up as I kick the verbs.
'Cause I walk the line of love and disturbed - you're gonna get just what you deserve.
I don't want you, I don't need you - I love you, but I don't believe you.
You're just a waste of time - get the fuck out of my mind! It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about you. It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about the pain you put me through!
It's all about you! I can't kill all this pain - you know I burn in hell
Can't refrain I just might as well go insane inside.
I'm screwed - you ripped my heart in two - there's nothing that I can do.
All the shit you put me through. I still love you. (do you really)
I still love you. (do you really)
I still love you. (do you really)
I still love you. (do you really) It's all about you, (it's all about me)
I'd do anything for you.

It's all about you, (it's all about me)
I'd do anything for you.It's all about you, (it's all about me)
I'd do anything for you.
It's all about you... bitch!
It's all about you.It's all about you.
It's all about you.
It's all about you.
It's all about you, bitch!
It's all about you, bitch!It's all about you.
It's all about you.
