That's All I Know

Jason Michael Carroll

I think honesty is right, think lying is wrong
Think Willie and Haggard wrote some awful good songs
Think God rides around with the radio on
In a ragged ol' truck just like mine
I don't think it's as bad as the newspaper says
I think Vegas is rigged but then I wouldn't bet
On these theories and thoughts rollin' round in my head
'Cause they change and they turn on a dime
But I know there's a sun and at night there's a moon
I get cold in December and sunburn in June
This ol' world keeps on turnin'
Time it ain't movin', it's slow
There's a woman that loves me like nobody can
She's my reason for livin', the reason I am
The luckiest man in the world
And that's all I know
I think taxes are high, think politics stink
But old uncle Sam don't give a damn what I think
And I don't believe worms oughta be in a drink
But I swallowed once on a dare
Think there's only one Beatles and Elvis is dead
And I don't believe half of the stuff we been feed
From the spoons in the hands of those ol' talkin' heads
I'm not even sure that I care
But I know there's a sun and at night there's a moon
I get cold in December and sunburn in June
This ol' world keeps on turnin'
Time it ain't movin', it's slow
There's a woman that loves me like nobody can
She's my reason for livin', the reason I am
The luckiest man in the world
And that's all I know
I've got a family that loves me like nobody can
They're my reason for livin', the reason I am
The luckiest man in the world, I'm the luckiest man in the world
And that's all I know, that's all I know, that's all I know
