Ohio

Lambchop

OH Ohio seems like a dream to me now
News papers in an empty basket
And I know all we'll show
I wrote your name upon the paper bag
Round today, green tomorrow
Green doesn't matter
Yeah green doesn't matter

And I hear that the word is up
And a dog's gotta do what a dog's gotta do
And green doesn't matter
Yeah green just doesn't matter
When you're blue

Busting my chops
Green fields into rocks
Beyond the fruited plain
Where there grows no fruit of the game
And I've gotten your holding inside my head, inside my head
Green doesn't matter
Green doesn't matter
Yeah green doesn't matter much
Yeah green just doesn't matter much
Green doesn't matter
When you're blue
